

Jan Richardson writes, The boundaries of heaven and earth are not as fixed as we think. In the stories of this season, we see a wondrous interplay between the realms. Angels come with strange invitations (Luke 1:5-20, 26-38) and glorious announcements (Luke 2:8-14). Wise men watch the skies and follow a star (Matthew 2:1-12). Ordinary people open themselves to the purposes of God, becoming the means by which God works on this earth. God becomes incarnate in Christ, choosing to enter fully into our human life for the purpose of showing us how heaven is already in our midst. What we tend to experience as separate realms are, in fact, part of one realm in which God is everywhere at work.

(Jan Richardson, "This Luminous Darkness")

We invite you to learn with us how all of life is gathered up in God's love for us in Jesus Christ. All year long, we coach each other in how to live with God at the center of who we are. That's what God offers us in Jesus and through the Holy Spirit--the opportunity to share life with God and to demonstrate God's love to a broken world. Come join us at Trinity Presbyterian Church as we experience the interplay between heaven and earth.

New to Trinity Presbyterian Church?

As you worship with us, we hope that you will meet God, feel welcomed, and sense the grace of Jesus Christ surrounding you. Here is some general information about Trinity:

Worship Services

Helping people worship God is important to us. We believe that worship is not a passive receiving, but an active encounter with Jesus, who meets us where we are. We offer two different worship services each week:

Mostly Liturgical Worship Service at 9:00 am uses liturgy, hymns, worship songs, and silence to guide us in the worship of God.

Church From Scratch Worship Service at 10:35 am blends all different types of music, arts, liturgy and free-form worship to help guide newcomers and experienced alike.

A nursery, (downstairs) is available for children two and under at both worship hours. A "family room" on the right side of the sanctuary is available, as well.

Sunday Morning

Children's

Christian Education

9:00 & 10:35: Children join their families in the Sanctuary for opening worship and "Learning with our Children" then proceed downstairs for class. The sign-in sheet at both hours is located in the main hallway outside the Sanctuary doors; sign-out near our classrooms in Fellowship Hall.
