Unison Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, you are the Creator of the ends of the earth, and yet you call us your children.

You are greater than we can ever begin to imagine, and yet you invite us to call you "Our Father".

Always you have loved us. You do not keep us at arm's length, remote in your holiness, but you reach out your hands in love, wanting us to relate to you, one to one. Always you have loved us. Forgive us that we call you "Our Father" but fail to live as your children. We do not trust you as we should, preferring instead to follow our own inclinations.

We are slow to ask your guidance, but swift to forget you and wander from your side. Always you have loved us. Accept our thanks that, despite our willfulness, you refuse to give up on us, working instead to draw us closer. You are always there for us. We praise and thank you for your undeserved goodness, and we resolve today to live more faithfully as your children. Forgive us our feeble responses to you.

Amen. (Moment of silent reflection)

Prayer for Our World

Special Song Dance With Me My King Nate Stuart

Offertory All the Time in the World

† Doxology # 592

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Benediction (read in unison)

You go nowhere by accident. Wherever you go, God is sending you.

Wherever you are, God has put you there.

God has a purpose in your being there.

Christ lives in you and has something he wants to do through you where you are.

Believe this and go in the grace and love and power of Jesus Christ.

Update from Africa

Our first week in Africa has been on the coast of Kenya on the Indian Ocean. Cynthia and I have been learning an in-depth method of studying the Bible (led by an American Presbyterian minister who just celebrated his 50th year in ministry). I've been discussing the Gospel of Mark with three others at my table (individuals from Ethiopia, Kenya, and a missionary to Somalia). Our table is just a small part of the nearly 100 people sharing their discoveries from the Bible in small and large group settings.

I'll be a better pastor as a result of this study. I'm learning from my African colleagues how to better explain the things I see in the Bible (meaning my sermons might be easier to follow!). I've also seen that some of the things the Holy Spirit has been teaching us in the US have been echoed by the Spirit around the world, as well! And I've been so deeply impressed with the passion of those who minister for Jesus in Africa. They are absolutely convinced of the power of God at work in the world, a renewed conviction I hope to carry home with me.

We finish our study on Saturday (August 18) and will have a two-day safari in Kenya before I fly to Zimbabwe on Monday and meet the other delegates from the Denver Presbytery on Tuesday. This coming week I'll be Harare, the capital of Zimbabwe which is experiencing a lot of unrest after the elections held on July 30. Next Sunday (August 26) I'll be preaching in a Presbyterian church in Harare. I'd appreciate prayers that the Holy Spirit will help me know what Jesus would have me say and to convey it a way that transcends our very different cultures. While I'm in Zimbabwe, Cynthia will be enjoying a spiritual retreat in Kenya before beginning her volunteer work in Zimbabwe the following week.

Thank you for keeping us in your prayers as we remember you as well.
Together in Christ,
John & Cynthia

Isaiah 44:24 NIV

"This is what the Lord says— your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb: I am the Lord, the Maker of all things, who stretches out the heavens, who spreads out the earth by myself.

Psalm 102:25 NIV

In the beginning you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.

Psalm 90:2 NIV

Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Psalm 102:26-27 NIV

They will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment. Like clothing you will change them and they will be discarded. But you remain the same, and your years will never end.

Isaiah 55:6-7 NIV

Seek the Lord while he may be found; call on him while he is near. Let the wicked forsake their ways and the unrighteous their thoughts. Let them turn to the Lord, and he will have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will freely pardon.

Psalm 86:5-8 NIV

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you. Hear my prayer, Lord; listen to my cry for mercy. When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me. Among the gods there is none like you, Lord; no deeds can compare with yours.

Ezekiel 37:23 NIV

They will no longer defile themselves with their idols and vile images or with any of their offenses, for I will save them from all their sinful backsliding, and I will cleanse them. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

Psalm 130:7-8 NIV

Israel, put your hope in the Lord, for with the Lord is unfailing love and with him is full redemption. He himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

NEW TO TRINITY?

Helping people to worship God is important to us. We believe that worship is not a passive receiving, but an active encounter with Jesus who stoops to meet us as we worship. The Mostly Liturgical Worship Service at 9:00 am uses liturgy, hymns, worship songs, and silence to guide us in the worship of God. The 10:35 am Church From Scratch Worship Service blends all different types of music, arts, liturgy and free-form worship to help guide newcomers and experienced alike in the worship of God. During the Summer and on Family Worship Sunday, selected Sundays throughout the year, we come together as one worshipping family at 9:30 am.

A Nursery, (downstairs) is available for children two and under at both worship hours. A "Family Room" on the right side of the Sanctuary is available, as well.

While Pastor John is Away

While our Pastor is in Africa (August 7-September 10), our Candidate for Ministry, Denise Shannon, will be preaching, leading in worship, and providing pastoral care. Please contact Denise at (720) 271-6733 or DeniseLShannon@aol.com if a pastoral emergency arises.

Our Church Administrator, Kay Marks, can help you know which lay leader to contact for any other question that might arise while Pastor John is away.

You can reach Kay at the church office (303) 422-3656 or at Administrator@TPCarvada.org.

The Presbytery of Denver is moving!

The Presbytery offices are closed in order to move to our new location at 4800 Happy Canyon Road, Suite 140 in Denver on Monday, August 20. Please stop in for an open house on Friday, September 14 from 11 am to 3 pm.

It's hard to believe that summer is nearly over, but that means it's time to gear up for a new season of learning together with several opportunities for Adult Christian Formation!

As we follow last year's journey through The Story, we continue to keep these questions in front of us:

Where are you finding yourself in God's story? Where are you noticing God's presence in your story?

We'll kick off our fall season of learning with a video-based study on the life of Dietrich Bonhoeffer in our Adult Sunday School class at 10:30, starting September 9.

We'll also have a special forum presented by our good friends at Making Choices at 10:30 on October 7.

Our midweek groups will start the week of September 9 with How to Read the Bible: a 9-week study (from The Bible Project) that goes deeper into the origins of, and genres in, the Bible as a key to how to read scripture in a more meaningful way.

Please consider joining in with one of these experiences! More details will follow in the next couple of weeks as well as sign-up sheets available in the Lobby a week from today, on August 26.

Men's Breakfasts will resume this fall (details to follow when Pastor John returns from his time in Africa), and we'll have a Women's Retreat Day on Saturday, October 6 at Mother Cabrini Shrine, led by our own Denise Shannon.

Ruth Circle will meet the second Thursdays of each month beginning on September 13 at 11 a.m., and Bible Study Fellowship will continue to meet at Trinity this fall as well. (Contact Grace Gillings for BSF details.)

Senior Adult Bible Study, as well as our Women's Book Groups will resume, and our Film and Faith group will meet this fall on September 25, October 30 and November 27.
